Woman's Club Destroyed by Fire

SMOKE BILLOWS from the fire wracked Yorba Linda Woman's Club clubhouse at the height of Friday night's blaze. Two firefighters on roof battle the flames which extensively damaged the building.

On Eve of Annual Bazaar

The big fund raising event for the Yorba Linda Woman's Club is their annual pre-Christmas bazaar. Members work all year making many items. The night before they produce their baked goods.

This year the club had a contest to get a new name for the event. The winning suggestion was "YORBAZAAR."

All day Friday, club members worked feverishly to get the clubhouse at Yorba Linda and Valencia ready. The items to be sold the next day were placed attractively around the room. Decorations were put in place.

After the final check early Friday evening everyone left, tired but anticipating the Saturday event which traditionally funds the club's activities for the ensuing year.

At 11:37 p.m. Friday the California Forest Service-Orange County and the local volunteer paid-call fire departments responded to a call to the clubhouse. When they arrived the building was totally involved in flames.

When the fire was extinguished the loss was complete. Most of the contents, including all of the bazaar sale items, were destroyed with one exception. Firefighters salvaged potato salad from the refrigerator.

That, and baked goods, were sold by club members at a "Fire Sale" held Saturday in the parking lot at Lakeview Center. The club realized approximately $150 from the mournful event.

Because of the forethought of one member the handmade quilt on which the club had sold tickets and was to be given away at the bazaar was fortunately taken home Friday night and thus was saved from the flames.

Captain Turbeville, public information officer for the Fire Department, said the blaze was caused by "combustible materials near the floor furnace."

A club spokesman wondered about that being the cause. She said that members had checked carefully, the floor furnace was allegedly not on, members had been careful about putting articles near it "for 30 years" and that there was a sign of caution about putting items near the furnace.

The loss was estimated at $40,000, $30,000 of that to the building and $10,000 for the contents.

The building is owned by the City of Yorba Linda to which the Woman's Club dedicated it earlier this year as a Community Center.

It has been used on a regular basis

Car-Cycle Accident

A traffic collision Saturday afternoon reportedly left a Yorba Linda youth with a broken leg and cuts.

According to police, Henry K. Creed, 61, of 4591 Boeing, Yorba Linda, was waiting to make a left turn from east-bound Yorba Linda Boulevard onto north-bound Lakeview about 4:45 p.m. When the traffic signal turned yellow, he began the turn.

At that point, police said, a motorcycle bearing Brian W. Fredrick, 16, of 18692 Evergreen, Yorba Linda, entered the intersection heading west-bound on Yorba Linda and collided with the Creed automobile.

Fredrick was taken to Placentia Linda Hospital for treatment of his injuries.

Creed later reported himself desirous of contacting a witness to the collision, a woman in her 30's who was allegedly crossing the intersection at the time of the accident, as well as any other witnesses. He may be reached at 528-8966 or 524-2744.

Child Abusers Program Nov. 30

A child has a right to a happy and healthy life just like an adult has. Yet, annually in the U.S. alone, 300,000 children are reported to be emotionally and physically abused by adults. Fifty thousand of them die.

Responding to rising public alarm about the abuse of children, the Linda Vista PTA, in cooperation with other PTA's throughout the district, has arranged for a panel of residents from the California Institution for Women at Frontera to present a program in Yorba Linda.

The program, which is being presented as a community service free of charge, will point out the need for effective parent education.

It will be held in the Yorba Linda District Library's multipurpose room on Tuesday, November 30, at 7:30 p.m.

Flyers will go home with children throughout the Yorba Linda School District.

Beth Brinkworth, president of the Linda Vista PTA, stresses that parents, teachers and other concerned persons from the community are encouraged to attend.

Panel members, who are all former child abusers, will discuss their personal experiences. Each panel member is a current member of Mothers Anonymous. A question and answer period will conclude the program.

Nina Klein, who is the sponsor of the Mothers Anonymous chapter at the institution, will serve as panel moderator.

For further information contact Beth Brinkworth at 996-1672 or Virginia Kroenlein at 528-8677.

Trustees Approve Teacher Contract

Fullerton Union High School District Trustees approved a contract settlement with its teachers, librarians, and nurses, which calls for a two-year contract and a 6% salary increase.

The settlement culminates over 180 hours of negotiations between the District and Fullerton Secondary Teachers Organizations (FSTO), the exclusive bargaining representative for the teachers, librarians and nurses.

Reached under the provisions of the Collective Bargaining Act (SB 160), the contract will provide for this school year's (1976-77) salary increase retroactive to November 1, 1976, and will cost the District an estimated $554,000 during the first year.

The salary increase will raise the minimum teacher salary in this District from $9,920 to $10,515 and $11,146 the following year.

Also included in the agreement is the reinstatement of step and class increments effective for the school year which began on September 9, 1976, and the continuation of fringe benefits at the same level of coverage provided in 1975-76.

Other provisions in the contract include:

--reaffirmation of the Board's management rights and power to control District activities,

--establishment of advisory arbitration in grievance procedures. This will allow that an outside arbitrator may hear evidence and render an opinion, although the power to determine a final and binding decision on the grievance is with the Board of Trustees;

--a no-strike clause for the duration of the agreement;

--other provisions dealing with the determination of pupil-teacher allocation ratios, procedures for evaluating employees, transfers, leaves, safety, retirement, length of work day, and term of agreement.

The contract will remain in force until June 30, 1978.

by the Woman's Club, Junior Woman's Club, Senior Citizens' Club, for Sunday services by a church group and for city recreation classes.

A club member said that the club would hold its Tuesday, Nov. 23 meeting in the United Methodist Church, board meetings would be held in private homes and the December general meeting would be in the Multi-Purpose Room at the Yorba Linda Library.

City Manager Art Simonian reported that the building was insured for $50,000. He said an insurance investigator would be looking at it to determine the extent of the loss and the amount of damage incurred.

City staff will meet with the Woman's Club which still has a diversionary interest in the building. Simonian mentioned that the city has $132,000 from Housing and Community Development Act funds which it had been stockpiling to furnish more parking for the clubhouse.

The city manager said that inquiries will be made to determine if these funds can be used for rebuilding the structure. He added that some of the land that is slated for purchase for parking has dwellings on the lots and these might be used temporarily.

Simonian also noted that there are about 2,000 square feet of property in the rear of the buildling which might make it possible to construct a larger buildling.

He said all possible alternatives will be investigated and the matter will be on the agenda for the December 6 City Council meeting for consideration, discussion and possible action.

Firefighters said that when they arrived on the scene the building was "totally involved." They had no problem with the fire which took 26 minutes to bring under control.

Response to the blaze included three engines, one truck, a Paramedic unit, a "super vac" and 25 firemen.

No injuries were involved in fighting the flames and the fire gave those fighting it no problems.

Reports said that next door neighbor Herbert Worsham reported the fire after he was awakened by his barking dog. The fire department said that Worsham's house presented a minor exposure problem but it did not become involved. Worsham said that this was probably prevented early when a trio of unidentified teenagers wet down his house with a garden hose.

The clubhouse has been a city and area landmark since the early 1900's when it was built and became operational. It is one of the oldest buildings in the city. The Woman's Club was organized in 1912 and the building was constructed 1922.

After 22 years in California the sense of "missing" things in Massachusetts, strong in the first few years, has diminished to the point of very few experiences that I would like to recapture.

One of them occurs every year at this time and, naturally, it centers around the family Thanksgiving dinner. But there was another event which was traditional and recalls fond memories.

That was the Thanksgiving Day morning football game between our high school and the one from the neighboring town.

Throughout the season it was easy to jump the fence to get into the games free. But for the Big Game it was impossible as they beefed up the police security. Tickets for that game went up in price to $1 for adults and 50 cents for kids as compared to 50 cents and 10 cents the rest of the season.

Fifty cents was a lot of money at that time. My brother and I counted on Grandfather to come up with it. The trouble was he never remembered until he went by the field and saw the arriving crowds. Then he would come back and give us the money. We lived in fear that he would take another route and not see the people.

As best remembered, Grandfather never let us down once. Mom wouldn't let me play football in high school so to be sure I got into the Big Game I volunteered to be a student usher for the whole season.

Years later I was the sports announcer on a local radio station and actually got paid for broadcasting all the high school games including the climactic one.

One of the more interesting events in connection with that game happened one year when my wife's brother got married on Thanksgiving Day and I was his best man. I had to skeedaddle from the church after the ceremony and Mass to the field in time to broadcast the game.

I cut it real close and had to run to the broadcasting booth on the top of the stands in front of the crowd. I got a tremendous reception because the crowd appreciated seeing an anouncer in a full tuxedo including the cutaway coat.

There was a second occasion which will long be remembered in connection with that game. Our station manager had the bright idea of using a field microphone for quick interviews during the game.

At one point the field announcer went for a cup of coffee or something and left the microphone unguarded and live. Some youngster picked it up and clearly enunciated an obscenity into it.

The game was near the end, close in score and exciting. I was describing the action in an excited voice when suddenly my engineer told me we had been cut off.

Back at the station they had interruped to apologize for the language which the youngster used. By the time they finished doing that the exciting action had ended and we had missed the climax of it.

To all our readers: "A HAPPY THANKSGIVING."

Police Beat

Sunday, Nov. 21

Two tool boxes, valued, together with their contents, at $50, were stolen Saturday night from the garage of Charles L. Marlenee, 18132 Avolinda, Yorba LInda.

Friday, Nov. 19

A disorderly party on Camille Street Friday night lead to the arrest of an Escondido man on charges of assaulting a police officer, resisting arrest, and disorderly conduct.

Daniel Patrick Smith, 21, of 1030 N. Joshua St., Escondido, was taken by Brea officers to Orange County Jail, where he was booked.

Although party-goers reportedly numbered over 300 at the time the gathering was broken up by police, and although responding officers were pelted with bottles and cans by the boisterous crowd, Smith's was the only arrest.

According to police, complaints from neighbors concerning the party began to be received at 8 p.m. Alan Lee Lowry, 24, of 16721 Camille, at whose home the party was taking place, was allegedly called twice by police to inform him of the complaints. Both times, police said, he assured them he would control the activities at the gathering.

About 10:30, four Brea officers arrived at the scene and contacted Lowry, who again said he would put a stop to excessive behavior. But shortly before 11, according to police, Lowry called the station to report the party was out of his hands.

Five regular officers and one reserve were then dispatched to disperse the assembly--which they did, despite bombardment by "numerous projectiles." No serious injuries were received by police.

At 11:45 officers pursued one last group of 15-20 persons into the Lowry residence. It was as these persons were being sent on their way that one identified as Smith, assaulted an officer with his fists and was arrested.

In addition to the Brea officers, members of the Placentia Police Department were also present at the scene, a departmental report said.

Sometime Friday afternoon $600 worth of jewelry and cash was taken from the home of Marjorie Rae Severaid, 4712 Santa Fe, Yorba Linda.

Between the first of October and last Friday thieves apparently tried to enter the main office at Mabel Paine School, 4444 Plumosa, Yorba Linda, through vents on the roof of the one-story building.

Although they were unable to open the vents, and although it would have done no good if they had, since the vents reportedly do not connect directly with the office, the feckless felons nevertheless managed to do $200 worth of damage.

Thursday, Nov. 18

Motorcycle parts worth a reported $75 were stolen from the backyard of Kent G. Morgan, 4711 Avocado, Yorba Linda, last Thursday morning between 10 and noon.

The same day, a burglar got $643 in coins and jewelry from the home of Gina Loraine Clarizo, 16782 Saga, Yorba Linda.

Tuesday, Nov. 16

Monday night last week the offices of Red Carpet Realty, 18422 Yorba Linda Blvd., Yorba Linda, were ransacked--but the burglar, who, police theorized, must have been looking for cash, apparently went away empty-handed.

Monday, Nov. 15

Tools and box worth a reported $150 were stolen between 7 and 9 p.m. Monday last week from the garage of Robert L. Schroeder, 6332 Glendale, Yorba Linda.

This tremendous support then, and throughout the year, contributed a great deal toward the success of this team. We all felt it and we all feel that this gave the team that extra little something that brought us victory.

It is our hope that you will continue this wonderful support into the Orange Bowl to help us bring the Conference championship back to Placentia-Yorba Linda Pop Warner.

Again, thank you so much and we'll see you at the Orange Bowl.

FUHSD Scores in Top Third

California state testing results indicate that Fullerton Union High School District students remain in the top one third of all school district students in the state, Superintendent Walter J. Ziegler said.

The test results are from the mandated California State Assessment Program administered during the 1975-76 school year to twelfth graders to test achievement levels in four areas—reading, written expression, spelling and mathematics.

The average student in this District did better than the average student in 70 % of all the districts statewide in reading; better than 74% of all the districts in written expression; better than 60% of all the districts in spelling; and better than 70% of all the districts in mathematics.

In relation to tests from previous years, there is a slight decrease in the overall scores. This is, however, no indication of a significant trend because of all the variables involved in the testing of students from year to year. There are bound to be fluctuations, said Dr. Robert French, assistant superintendent for Educational Services.

One primary factor that might have contributed to the difference is that new test materials were used for the first time, so that a comparison with previous years' tests is not really valid.

In comparison with other school districts having similar background factors (socioeconomic and educational), the District falls within the middle 50% of all scores obtained by the average student in the comparable school districts.

"The individual school staffs and Districts Curriculm Committee will be studying the test results for curricular implications," French said.

Bushala Leads Troy

by Scott Emblidge

Troy High School advanced to the second round of the CIF playoffs with a 19-7 win over North High School (Riverside) last Friday evening at Fullerton Stadium. Some second half heroics by all-league tailback, Tony Bushala, gave the Warriors their first play-off victory ever.

Bushala gained a school record 277 yards, most of which came in the second half where Troy scored all 19 of their points. The Warriors now advance to round two and will play number one ranked South Pasadena Friday evening at Fullerton Stadium.

Troy was outplayed by the Huskies in the first half, although neither offense was close to spectacular. North seemed worn out in the second half and the Warriors went to their usual game plan; give it to Bushala.

North got on the board first with a 19 yard scoring toss in the second quarter. The Huskies stopped Troy's offense cold in the first half by containing Bushala and forcing quarterback Richard Bridgford to pass.

Bridgford did a commendable job though, completing 10 of 17 for 92 yards. It was by far the most active game for Bridgford as a passer this year.

Troy came out running in the second half and Bushala began gathering steam as the game progressed. He scored his first of two touchdowns on a 27 yard run in the third quarter. The extra point attempt by Dan Worthington was blocked so Troy still trailed but only by a 7-6 margin.

The last play of the third quarter was what turned the game in the Warrior's favor. With North beginning to drive for the first time in the second half, cornerback Kolby Gibson ran back an interception to the 49 yard line.

This started a 51 yard drive capped off by a Bridgford to David Doyel seven yard scoring pass. The two point conversion attempt failed but Troy had the lead to stay.

Gibson's interception was his eighth pass reception of the night. The other seven came on offense where he had possibly his best night receiving, gaining 80 yards.

Bushala scored on a 41 yard run to put the game away late in the fourth quarter. This game was possibly Bushala's best and it seemed fitting that he have such an excellent performance after being overlooked as "back of the year" in the Freeway League.

The game against South Pasadena will be head coach Phil Oram's biggest since it is the first time a Troy team has accomplished as much as the '76 Warriors have this year.

He would like to see Troy go farther in the playoffs but Kolby Gibson seemed to sum up the Warriors chances the best by stating, "We'll just have to play the best game we've ever played."
